

York Reiki Plus presents

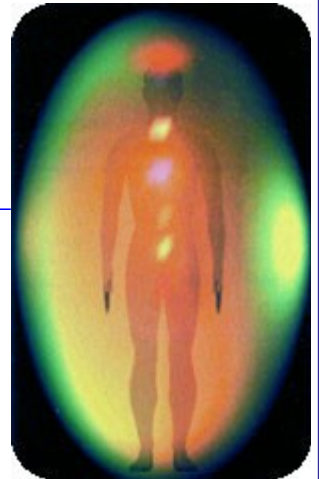

Aura Workshop

Become Aware and Develop your Auric Vision

This workshop is for those that want to explore and get an impression of Auras, and with practice, begin to see them.

The various shapes, colours, sizes and condition of one's Aura have meaning and valuable information that can offer us clarity and insight about others and ourselves—when we know what to look for.

It's all about letting go of our disbelief and trusting the information you receive. We all have the ability to do this, and we always have.
